We're recruiting!

Brand Sales Ambassador

(London Area)

We're looking for someone with a passion for craft spirits to represent and sell our brand into prospective on and off-trade customers in London. You will be teamed up with one of our wholesale distributors and will engage with accounts to win new business for our brand.

Past experience will be a bonus but enthusiasm and a positive, hard-working attitude are just as important. If you're knowledgeable about craft drinks and cocktails then this will serve you well too.

We are an exciting, young brand – making great spirits and doing good things for gorillas (we donate £1 for every bottle we sell) and this is a great opportunity to get involved with a fresh, fast-growing brand.

Interested? Drop a line to Simon on 07710 380 680 or simon@gorillaspirits.co.uk to tell him why you'd be good for the role
